Buhmann on Art

Caetano de Almeida

This two-venue show features recent large-scale watercolors on paper and paintings by the Sao Paulo-based Brazilian artist. The compositions of de Almeida are optically charged, chromatic and frequently characterized by patterns made of circular cutouts and holes. The works' overall geometric structure hints at the rich history of Brazilian geometric and Neo-Concrete art. However, it is de Almeida's intuitive use of color that provides a unique sense of dynamism all his own.

Through Oct. 13, at Eleven Rivington (11 Rivington St., btw. Chrystie St. & Bowery and 195 Chrystie St., btw. Rivington & Stanton Sts). Hours: Wed.-Sun., 12-6pm. Call 212-982-1930 or visit elevenrivington.com.
