TOUCH TOUR PICTURES at ELEVEN RIVINGTON, 12/1/08

Young Girl with Flowers in her Hair, 1865-70
The Dixon Gallery and Gardens, 2007

Eleven Rivington is showcasing Touch Tour Pictures, a collection of Matt Ducklo's photos of blind people touching priceless works of art at various museums and galleries. The pictures pack a complex emotional wallop, leaving one feeling sympathetic towards the subjects but also a bit envious of them for being allowed to do something that is strictly forbidden to the rest of us. Definitely worth a look.
